Salary Commission: Evelina Kurilenko (present)
Amista Taylor (present)
Neil Butler (present)

Staff Present: Meagan Lowery, Finance and Information Services Director

AGENDA ITEMS:

1. Approval of meeting minutes from April 14, 2025 Neil Butler made a motion to approve, Amista Taylor seconded, passed unanimously.
2. Discussion of Councilmember interview question responses Commission members reviewed the interview responses of council.
3. Discussion of comparable cities salaries Commission members reviewed the comparable cities salaries. Amista Taylor asked which Cities were the most comparable and stated a desire for the Battle Ground to to be in the middle of the pack in relation to comparable cities.
4. Discussion of any potential changes to salary schedule Commission discussed potential changes to the salary schedule. Neil Butler was hoping for a way to tie the schedule to the level of involvement of council members to show engagement and they are competent through a certificate program. Ms. Lowery provided insight into the governance manual and ethics committee. Evelina Kurlinko gave the idea of doing a 3.5% increase for next three years, discussion continued and Amista Taylor said she would prefer to increase in $50 increments vs. a percentage. Neil Butler discussed concerns over raising salaries and potential roadblocks for future candidates to file as they pay 1% of the positions salary to get on the ballot.
5. Public Comment Jessica Cole of Battle Ground, Wa spoke to the Commission and questioned if it was normal practice to offer an opt out amount for those not taking medical and clarification that the council members were part time but the city does not offer medical to part time employees. Neil Butler gave Jessica Cole the RCW authorizing Council to receive medical and they only have control over the seven councilmembers and not staff.

6. Next steps Evelina Kurilenko made a motion to modify the salary schedule to increase the salary of councilmembers, deputy, and mayor by $50 increments each year for the next three years with all else remaining the same in the salary schedule for medical benefits effective January 1, 2026. Amista Taylor seconded the motion, motion passed unanimously.
7. Next Commission Meeting: TBD in 2026
