Parks and Community Engagement Advisory Board Meeting
March 8, 2023; 4pm
Battle Ground Community Center with Zoom Option

The public meeting of the Parks and Community Engagement Advisory Board was called to order at 4:04pm by Jennifer Rosenberger.

Present: Jennifer Rosenberger, Chris Brown, Stefani Leavitt, Ryder Sharrow, Brett Richardson, Ryden Sharrow

Absent: Michelle Yenderrozos (excused)

Staff/Other: Kim Cederholm, Recreation and Facilities Manager

Minutes

The board unanimously approved the minutes from the February 14 meeting.

Parks Appreciation Day

Ms. Leavitt suggested that we market this event as “adopt a park for a day” to help with promotion. Ms. Cederholm agreed to passing along a flier once it is created to the board with the hopes of generating some interest from organizations and groups. She also liked that idea of putting out sandwich boards the day of the event. The board suggested a lead volunteer at each of the participating parks to help manage the work.

Main Street Holiday Banner

Ms. Cederholm provided the board with an update that council did not approve the purchase of the banner and will feel more comfortable doing so when the poles on main street are installed. She also shared that council liked the addition of the snowflakes.

Recreation Update

Ms. Cederholm gave an update on the upcoming cornhole tournament; 25 teams and 8 singles have registered. Ms. Rosenberger reminder suggested putting out fliers of upcoming events on the tournament table.

Other

Mr. Brown shared a photo of bee pods at the Vancouver Mall and asked where we were on the mural project. He also suggested to bring the Art Alliance to an upcoming meeting. Ms. Cederholm with reach out to Alisha Smith on the next steps.
