Staff: Kim Cederholm, Recreation and Facilities Manager; Sam Crummett, Community Development Director; Mayor Philip Johnson

Minutes

The board unanimously approved the April 13, 2022 minutes.

PROS Plan

Mr. Steve Duh asked for feedback on the first several chapters of the PROS Plan that were sent out. The board was happy with the layout and the content. The board should receive the final chapters in the next couple of weeks after the staff has submitted their comments. These next chapters will include goals and objectives, partnerships and equity and inclusion.

The Mayor asked the board to start thinking about handicap equipment and shared an example of a swing structure. The Mayor also expressed interest in fitness equipment in the parks. Mr. Duh shared that this was addressed in the ADA/All Inclusive Play (Chapter 5). The PROS Plan will be brought to Council second meeting in June.

Long Holiday Banner

Ms. Laratta was not in attendance.

Recreation and Facilities Updates

Ms. Cederholm shared there were 100+ volunteers at the six different parks on Park Appreciation Day last month.

Ms. Cederholm also reminded the board that in celebration of Battle Ground Fred Meyer's 100th year anniversary was going to be at Kiwanis Park working on the memorial wall on Monday May 16, 10am.

Ms. Cederholm also shared that she, along with the Mayor, attended the Parks Foundation of Clark County luncheon to accepted a check of $8550 for the summer playground program.

Communications

Mayor Philip Johnson shared that we should hear back in October in regards to the Senior Center Grant that we applied for. He also shared that there will be a memorial remembrance at Kiwanis Park on Monday, May 30th at 11:00am.
